

April 7, 2024

The King and His People

Luke 24:13-49

The day of the resurrection, the disciples received a report from the women that Jesus was alive, but they had their doubts. Some remained in Jerusalem while others returned home. This was not the end of the resurrection story. Jesus appears to His disciples so they would know the Gospel continues through them.

Additional Verses:

Matthew 28:19-20

Acts 4:12

2 Corinthians 4:4

1 John 3:2

Outline:

1. The King instructs His people.

2. The King assures His people.

3. The King commissions His people.

Study Questions:

1. What does Jesus remind His disciples? Why is it important to know all Scripture points to Jesus?

2. How is the inability of the disciples to see Jesus similar to people not seeing Jesus today? What is the solution for people's inability to see?

3. How is Jesus physical resurrected body an assurance to believers today? Why are our bodies important in the resurrection?

4. How is Luke's Great Commission different from Matthew's? What are some similarities?

5. How is the Holy Spirit leading you to respond to God today?