

October 29, 2023

Jesus' Death

John 19:38-41

After saying, "It is finished," Jesus gave up His spirit to death. There hanging on the cross for everyone to see was Jesus' dead body. The death of Jesus absolutely has eternal consequence. At the same time, the death of Jesus effected people who saw it firsthand. Even though the responses were not all the same.

Additional Verses:

Romans 1:16

1 Corinthians 1:17-18

Outline:

1. Jesus's death pleased some people.

2. Jesus' death disinterested some people.

3. Jesus' death frightened some people.

4. Jesus' death emboldened some people.

Study Questions:

1. Why did Jesus' death please the religious leaders of the day?

2. Why are some people not interested in Jesus' death? How do you see this in society today?

3. What group was frightened by Jesus' death? Why were they frightened? How did Jesus alleviate their fears?

4. How does Jesus' death emboldened you in your daily life? In what areas do you need to be bolder? How can you make that happen?

5. How does Jesus' death permit us to partake the Lord's Supper?

6. How is the Holy Spirit leading you to respond to God today?