

October 27, 2024

Living to God

1 Corinthians 7:25-40

How should believers live? That question has been asked, and will continue to be asked, until Jesus returns. One aspect of that question is should I live as a single or be married? Regardless of relationship status, God desires His people to live for Him. These verses provide instructions on how to orient our thinking as we live for God.

Additional Verses:

Mark 12:25

Luke 21:23

Romans 12:15

1 Timothy 5:8

James 4:14

1 Peter 1:4-5, 24-25

1 John 1:15-17

Outline:

1. Live regarding time.

2. Live considering status.

3. Live anticipating eternity.

4. Live worshiping God.

Study Questions:

1. Do these verses condemn marriage? What is the ultimate truth being communicated in these verses?

2. How should believers live considering time is short and troubled? Where and how do you see this truth impacting your decisions?

3. How do you faithfully live in your current status? What are some unique ways singles can serve the church? What are some unique ways married couples can serve the church?

4. Which of the 5 areas pull at you the most? The least? How should we live in the tension of these areas and eternity?

5. How is your devotion meter toward God? What do you need to do or stop to increase your devotion to God?

6. How is the Holy Spirit leading you to respond to God today?